THE YOUNG

INDIANA JONES CHRONICLES

05 AFRICAN SAFARI

by RICHARD BRIGHTFIELD

ADAPTED FROM
THE ABC-TV PRIME-TIME SERIES

On safari with President Theodore Roosevelt...
Captured by a warlike nomadic tribe...
Charged by a man-eating hippopotamus...
Riding on a train through the African savannah...and Learning a lesson in the relationship between man and nature...

These are only some of the adventures you will have as young Indiana Jones!

The year is 1909, and you and your parents are traveling through British East Africa, invited to spend time on a friend's coffee plantation. When you arrive, you join a safari searching for the incredibly rare fringe-eared oryx—and soon become involved in a very dangerous hunt. You'll also get to meet larger-than-life President Theodore Roosevelt, peaceful Kikuyu tribesmen, and the warlike Maasai.

Will you be bitten by poisonous snakes? Or will you find the fringe-eared oryx and save it from extinction? Only you as Indiana Jones can choose your own adventure!
